NARRATIVE:

Jones, a sex offender and documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include lewd or lascivious acts with a child under 14, stalking, vehicle theft, failure to register as a sex offender, and sex offender's failure to do annual update, violation of parole, burglary, and possession/purchase for sale of narcotics. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a six (6) year term for lewd or lascivious acts with a child under 14. Jones was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 31, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Jones qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of failure to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, sex offender status, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
